

The Historic District Commission has called a special meeting for Monday, May 15 at 7 PM in the Town Barn to discuss contemporary building materials and board procedures. No applications will be reviewed at the meeting; it is a training session for the members.